BIRTHDAY LUNCHEON SPEAKER – Peggy Sanchez Mills

This presentation will address the state of girls in New Mexico. The speaker will address Collaborative Partnerships, and the importance of women engaging with young girls as mentors, role models, teachers, etc. The impact on our world would be so much greater if more women were at the decision-making tables! Our task is to engage our young generation of girls to do just that, so how can we help them get there?

Peggy Sanchez Mills is currently the Chief Executive Officer of the Girl Scouts of New Mexico Trails, the premier national organization for girls. She is the recipient of Women of Influence Award in New Mexico 2017, and has been a strong advocate for the interests of girls and women for over 30 years.. A native New Mexican, Ms. Sanchez Mills has served in leadership capacities for several notable organizations throughout the United States. She holds many leadership awards as a top-level businesswoman, as well as having been honored in several other areas.
